What's new?

First Night at the Library

Bethlehem Public Library is part of the lineup of venues for First Night Bethlehem, a walkable family-friendly New Year's Eve celebration held in the heart of Bethlehem. The festivities kick off Monday December 31 at 6:30pm with fireworks at the Four Corners. Make your way down to the library anytime between 7 and 10pm for some exciting programs and activities for kids, tweens and families.

There will be face painting and performances by Andy the Music Man, along with a theater workshop with Broadway Bound Performing Arts Academy. We'll also have the green screen set up in the Board Room for some picture-taking fun. Regular library services will not be available.

It will be a night to remember as we welcome the New Year, library-style!

About this issue

This November/December Footnotes is the biggest issue we've ever published, and for good reason. Our Friends of Bethlehem Public Library have funded the additional pages for this special end-of-the-year edition as a way of introducing themselves to those in the community who may not yet know what it is they do for the library. Read all about them on Pages 10-11.

The added space has also allowed us to publish our annual report of the 2017-18 fiscal year as a part of this newsletter. You'll find it on Page 8. This report highlights some of the library's exciting achievements and programs over the past year, along with important circulation and collection information that tells the tale of how our users are interacting with the goods and services we offer.

Finally, we encourage you to take the time to fill out the survey on Page 9 about library services. We want to know how you are using your library and what we provide that is of most value to you. As our trustees begin their long-range planning discussion, they are looking to balance the maintenance and upkeep needs of our 45-year-old building with the kinds of community-supported enhancements that will allow the library to grow with and be a reflection of the community we serve. Your input is key in helping the trustees and library staff make those decisions. The survey is also available in a larger print paper edition at the library and online at www.bethlehempubliclibrary.org.

The write stuff

Do you know what NaNoWriMo means? It's a catchy way of referring to National Novel Writing Month, which just happens to be in November.

The goal of NaNoWriMo is to create the first draft of a novel within the month. The library is here to encourage that creative enterprise by offering working and collaboration space in one of our meeting rooms for adults taking up the NaNoWriMo challenge.

Join other would-be authors in this exciting literary pursuit starting Friday November 2, from 5-8pm. Other drop-in times include November 9 and 16, both Fridays, from 5-8pm. Stop by for one or more sessions at your convenience; writing instruction is not provided. Visit nanowrimo.org for more details and tips for getting started.

A Little Sunday Music

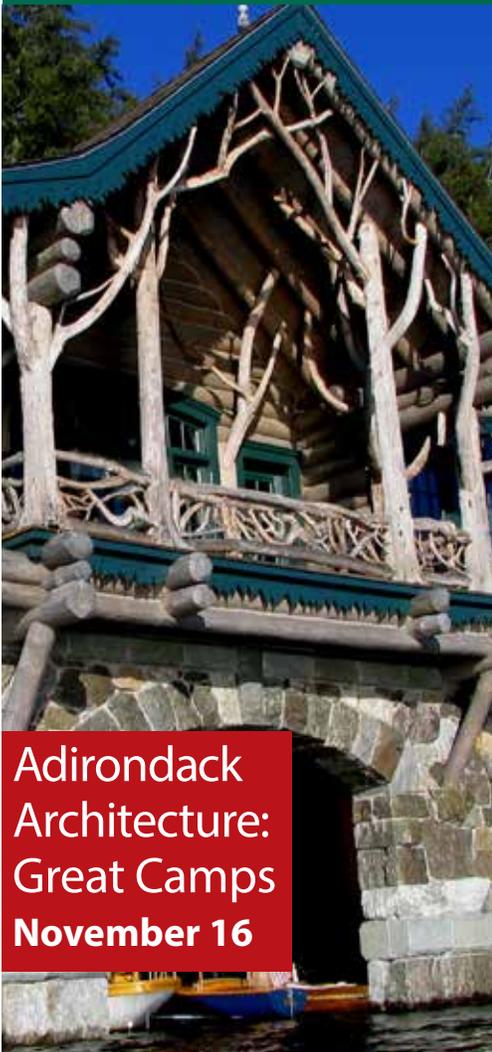

For more than 15 years, Bethlehem Public Library's annual winter concert series, A Little Sunday Music, has entertained and delighted audiences. This popular series is still going strong, with a 2018-19 lineup that includes some very talented musicians and ensembles.

A Little Sunday Music opens Sunday November 11 at 2pm with Linda Russell and her trio performing songs popular during the Great War. This performance is part of the WWI 100th Anniversary series. A Little Sunday Music continues December 9 at 2pm with Eric Roth, who will present a program of 19th century guitar music.

After a short break in January, the concert series resumes February 10 with audience favorite The Bleecker Consort, who will play a diverse set of instruments, including early strings, reeds and a variety of percussion. A vocal recital by Irina Tikhonenko rounds out the series on March 10. A Little Sunday Music is sponsored by the Friends of Bethlehem Public Library.

2017-18 Annual Report

PROGRAMS AND SPECIAL EVENTS

- A four-part series on the Federalist Papers co-sponsored by Humanities New York engaged the community and earned the library an award for Adult Program of the Year.
- The Rubber Ducky Club, an early literacy initiative for babies, toddlers and preschoolers, also won an award for Kids and Families Program of the Year.
- A partnership with Bethlehem Senior Services allowed the library to co-host a prom for senior citizens at Town Hall.
- Wi-Fi signal expanded to the Five Rivers Environmental Education Center. Use of Wi-Fi at the Town Park continues to climb.
- Customized library card programs allowed patrons to be the stars of their own cards (along with Bad Kitty).
- We added Chromebooks, solar chargers, American Girl dolls, ukuleles, analog video converters and wireless projectors to our Library of Things, which is underwritten by the Friends of the Library.
- Adult programming Coffee and Conversation, co-sponsored by Bethlehem Senior Projects, Inc., touched on music, history, travel and more.
- Extensive outreach brought us into the community and our schools.
- Our annual indoor miniature golf event was free and open to the entire community.
- Summer Reading was a huge hit. Teen volunteers kept everything running smoothly, and adults were encouraged to take part with their very own Bingo reading challenge.
- Both of our long-standing concert series, Evenings on the Green (summer) and A Little Sunday Music (winter), continue to draw large audiences each year. An ice cream social during one of the summer performances is very popular with the community.
- Our meeting rooms are opened for group study before the January and June Regents exams.
- Monthly Listening Parties allow music lovers to explore their favorite artists in depth.

What are Friends for?

EVERYONE KNOWS life is better with friends, and Bethlehem Public Library has some very good ones dedicated to increasing public awareness of the library's mission, as well as sponsoring programs that enrich the entire community.

SOME OF THE LIBRARY'S most popular events and activities are funded by the Friends of Bethlehem Public Library, including mini-golf, bus trips to Glimmerglass or New York City and the ice cream social during the Evenings on the Green summer concert series finale. If you've ever borrowed a GoPro camera or checked out an American Girl doll, ukulele, telescope or metal detector, you have the Friends to thank as well.

THE FRIENDS ALSO underwrite the popular winter concert series, "A Little Sunday Music," and they support the "Writers and Friends" guest author series.

BECAUSE OF THE FRIENDS, Bethlehem patrons can check out free passes to a number of area museums and historic buildings, including Olana, MASS MoCA, the Albany Institute of History & Art, Museum of Innovation and Science (miSci), Children's Museum at Saratoga, and more. (You'll find the complete list at www.bethlehempubliclibrary.org; find "museum passes" under the "More" tab.)

THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY is an all-volunteer organization and welcoming new members. The group meets on the third Monday evening, every other month. Meetings are open to the public.

IF YOU WOULD like to play a greater role in this community organization, please contact the Friends liaison at friends@bethlehempubliclibrary.org.

Become a Friend

Please consider a contribution to the Friends to help continue supporting free cultural and educational programming for the community, as well as special projects and purchases not covered by traditional funding.

Friends memberships start at $20. Business memberships are also available. To join, fill out the form on the right and send it to Friends of Bethlehem Public Library, 451 Delaware Ave., Delmar NY 12054 with checks made payable to Friends of Bethlehem Public Library.

To join online visit bethlehempubliclibrary.org/friends.

Songs of Home

The Bethlehem Senior Chorus presents "Songs of Home" on Friday November 30 at 1 pm. The program, which will be held in Bethlehem Town Hall, is open to everyone. The repertoire will explore the meaning of home, whether it be a dwelling, people, place or a spiritual connection. The chorus, which is now in its 14th year, strives to present timeless music to be enjoyed by all. Cosponsored by Bethlehem Senior Projects, Inc.

Exhibits

During the month of November, the hallway exhibit space will feature works by the Bethlehem Art Association. In December, there will be oil paintings and drawings by George Dowse and oil paintings by Carol Turner.

Storm warning

In the event of inclement weather, the library's telephone system will provide the latest information on a closing or delayed opening. Please call ahead.
